YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/>• Used, been addicted to, or trafficked in narcotics? YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/>• Been convicted of a criminal offence in any country? YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/>• Been deported or excluded from any country? YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/>
I agree to the following terms and conditions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• I have sufficient funds, or access to such funds, to support myself during a substantial part of my visit; and that I may be required to produce evidence to this effect by the Immigration Officer at port of entry;• I understand that medical insurance valid for the duration of my time in Ireland is a requirement, and may be requested by an Immigration Officer at the port of entry;• Working Holiday Authorisations for citizens of Chile are valid for presentation at an Irish port of entry within twelve months of the date of issue;• Within the time frame specified by the Immigration Officer at the port of entry, holders of Working Holiday Authorisations must register with the Garda National Immigration Bureau and will be issued with a Certificate of Registration on payment of the appropriate fee (€300) and on production of all relevant supporting documentation (which includes proof of funds, medical insurance, and police certificate);• Working Holiday Authorisations are issued on an individual basis. Holders of Working Holiday Authorisations shall not seek to be accompanied or joined by a spouse or dependents;• Permission granted to those entering Ireland on the basis of a Working Holiday Authorisation shall be valid for a maximum period of twelve (12) months from the date of entry into Ireland. Extensions to the period of validity of such permission shall not be granted. Participants must leave Ireland on the expiration of the permission, which cannot be extended, either under the authorisation itself, or through attempting to convert it to a different form of immigration status. I understand I may be requested to produce a return ticket (as evidence of compliance with 12 month limit of authorisation) at the port of entry;

- Chilean nationals who are already in Ireland with an immigration status other than that based on a Working Holiday Authorisation may not convert to permission based on a Working Holiday Authorisation without leaving the State and re-entering on the basis of the valid Working Holiday Authorisation.
- All questions have been answered and the particulars provided are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
